

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

TO

MY LIFE-LONG AND HONORED FRIEND,

JOHN LANGDON SIBLEY,

LIBRARIAN EMERITUS OF HARVARD COLLEGE,

THIS MEMORY OF A SUMMER'S VACATION

IS INSCRIBED.

BLOCK ISLAND, named for the Dutch explorer, Adrian Block, is in latitude $41^{\circ} 08'$ North, and longitude $71^{\circ} 33'$ West. It is distant southwest from Newport about thirty miles, and north of east from Montauk, the easterly end of Long Island, about eighteen miles.

It was first described in the year 1524 by the French navigator, Verrazzano. In 1614 it was visited by Block, who gave it its present name. In 1636 the Boston trader, John Oldham, while at anchor in its harbor, was killed by the Indians. Colonel John Endicott was soon afterwards sent by the General Court of Massachusetts to punish the offenders. He landed upon the Island and thoroughly accomplished his object. In 1658 the Island was granted to Gov. Endicott, Deputy Governor Richard Bellingham, Major General Daniel Dennison and Major William Hathorne, who in turn sold it in 1660 to Doctor John Alcock of Roxbury and his associates.

The year 1662 witnessed the first white settlement of the Island by a company from Boston and Taunton.

The old Cemetery from which the inscriptions on the following pages were taken is situated on the westerly side of a hill overlooking the Great Salt Pond. Many of its graves are marked simply by round field stones gathered from the neighborhood.

Most of the older inscribed stones are of slate, ornamented with the conventional winged skull and scroll borders, precisely like many in the sea-board towns of the mainland. These stones were undoubtedly imported from England already ornamented, and were lettered by a skilled hand in this country. A few of the stones are from the sandstone quarries of Connecticut, and these are generally devoid of ornamentation.

It is believed that exact copies of the inscriptions of all the stones antedating 1800 will be found in these pages.

EDWARD DOUBLEDAY HARRIS.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., April, 1883.

HEARE LIETH
THE BODY OF M
MARGRET GVTRY
AGED 64 YERS WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE APRIL 5 1687

Robert Guthrig was Town Clerk in 1675, and probably the same Mr. Robart Guttereg, or Guttrig, was freeman of the colony in 1684, and died in 1692. The surname is a corruption of Goodrich, a family numerous in Connecticut at that time.

James Sands, with wife Sarah, though not in the first company, was of the Island early enough to participate in first division of lands. He was a freeman in 1655, and was Representative in 1678, 1680, and 1690. He had sons, John, James, and Samuel, who settled at Cowneck, L.I., Edward, and Job, and daughters, Sarah (who married Nathaniel Niles) and Mercy (who married Joshua Raymond). His wife Sarah died before July 6, 1702.

Captain John Sands and James Sands, Jr., were freemen of the Island in 1684.

[Horizontal sandstone slab.]

THIS MONUMENT
Is erected to the Memory
of SIMON RAY Esquire
One of the original Proprietors
of this Island
He was largely concerned
In settling the Township
And was one of the chief Magistrates and such was his Benevolence
That besides the care which he took
Of their civil Interests
He frequently instructed them
In the more important Concerns
Of our Holy Religion
He was deprived of his Eyesight many Years
Cheerfully submitting to the will of God
His Life being in this trying Instance
As in all others
A Lovely Example of Christian Virtue
He died on the 17th of March 1737
In the 102nd Year of his Age.

Simon Ray, Senior, was the son of Simon of Braintree, Mass., who died there 30 Sept., 1641. He was one of the original proprietors of Block Island, and was in the Taunton company that arrived there in 1661. In 1676 he was Deputy Warden and afterward Warden of the Island, was a freeman in 1664, and for many years represented the colony in the General Assembly.

He married Mary, daughter of Nathaniel Thomas of Marshfield, Mass., and had issue: Mary, b. May 19, 1667; Dorothy, b. Oct. 16, 1669; Simon, b. April 9, 1672; Sibel, b. March 19, 1675.

Aged 3 Yrs. 3
M^o & 16 Days.

Trustam or Trustarum Dodge (sometimes spelled Daudg or Daug in the old records) was one of the first company from Taunton in 1661, was a town officer in 1676, had been admitted freeman in 1664, was living in 1684, and is thought to have been the ancestor of the after generations of Dodges on the Island. John and William Dodge, and a Trustarum, perhaps sons of the first settler, were freemen in 1678.

Beneath THIS STONE
Are deposited the Remains
of SIMON RAY Esquire
Who for many Years
Was one of the chief Magistrates of this Town
He filled the most important Offices
With honor to Himself
And Advantage to his Country.
To suppress Vice and promote Virtue
was the fixed Aim of his private Life
And public Authority
He was a Lover of Learning
Justice and Benevolence
A Friend to his Country and ever attentive
to the Interests of this Island
He was a sincere Believer in our Saviour
And by a faithful Obedience to his Precepts
Truly adorned the Christian profession
He died on the 9th March 1755
In the 85th Year of his Age.

Simon Ray was born 9 April, 1672, on the Island, the only son of Simon, the first settler, by wife Mary. He had issue: Judith, b. Oct. 4, 1726, married Thomas Hubbard; Anna, b. Sept. 27, 1728, married Samuel Ward, afterward Governor of Rhode Island; Catharine, b. July 10, 1731, married William Greene, also a Governor of Rhode Island; Phebe, b. Sept. 10, 1733, married John Littlefield.

The original settler spelled his name Thormut or Tormot. He was one of the first company from Taunton in 1661, and was assigned land there in the first division. He was early a Town Officer, was made freeman in 1664, and was living certainly as late as 1684. The same Christian name has been perpetuated in the family under various spellings, until, according to Livermore, it has assumed the form of Thomas.

William Rose was the captain of the vessel that brought the first company to the island, but it does not appear that he remained.
